THE LOVING SACRIFICE

Once upon a time, a very long time ago, in a place called Jerusalem, there lived a kind and loving man named Jesus. He was very special because He taught people to be good, love one another, and be kind. People loved Jesus and listened to His stories

He helped the sick feel better and made blind people see. He did amazing things, like turning water into grape juice and feeding a big crowd with just a little bit of bread and fish.

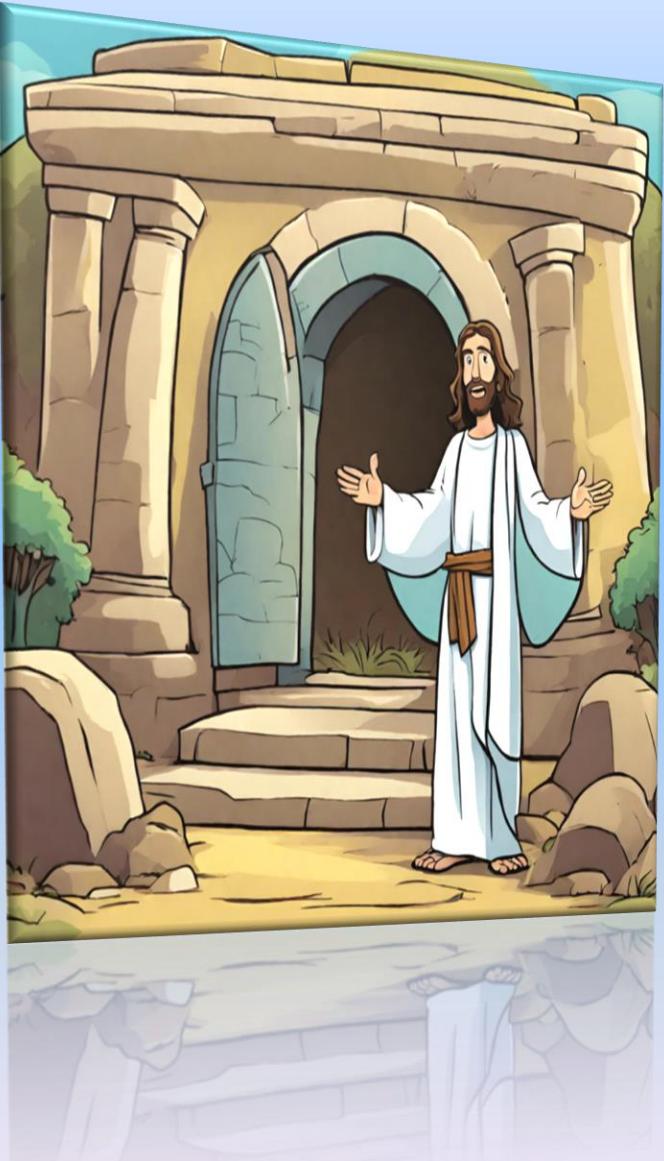

But not everyone liked what Jesus was saying. Some people felt scared, and others didn't understand His message of love and kindness. They made a very sad decision to hurt Him.

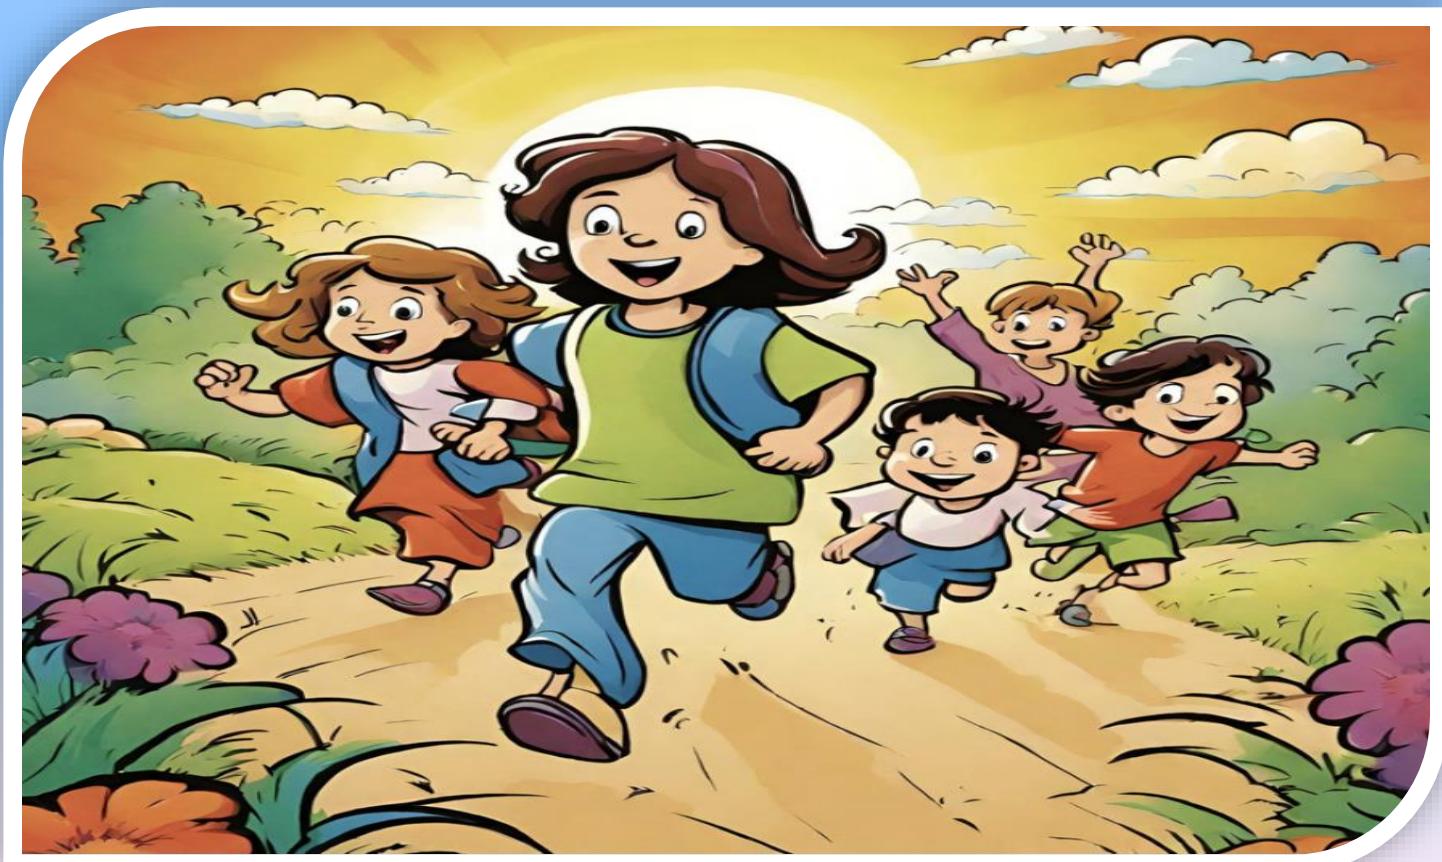

One day, they took Jesus away and put Him on a big wooden cross. It was a very painful and sad time. He died on the cross, and His friends and the people who loved Him were heartbroken. They put Jesus in a tomb, which is like a big cave. They rolled a big stone in front of it to keep it closed.

But something wonderful happened. On the third day, the stone rolled away from the tomb, and Jesus came back to life! It was like a miracle. His friends were overjoyed. Jesus' return showed that love is stronger than anything, even death. He wanted everyone to know that God loves us and forgives us when we make mistakes. He said, "Love one another as I have loved you."

So, that's the story of Jesus' death and miraculous return to life, which reminds us that love and kindness are powerful and can bring happiness and hope to the world.

Chapter 2

"Five Loaves, Two Fish, and a Miracle"

Once upon a time, there lived a young boy named Timmy. Timmy was very generous and loved to share his meals and toys with his friends

One sunny day, Timmy's mother asked him to run an errand to the market. She handed him a small basket, containing five loaves of bread and two fish.

As Timmy skipped through the village, he saw a crowd gathered around. Curious, he went closer and saw a kind man named Jesus. Jesus was telling wonderful stories, and everyone was listening intently. So he sat down with his basket of bread and fish and also listened.

After some times, He became hungry. Timmy thought, "I have a few loaves of bread and these two fish. I could have a feast, but there are so many people here who are hungry too."

He decided to share what he had. He stood up and said, "I have five loaves of bread and two fish. It's not much, but if you're hungry, you can share it with me."

When Jesus saw what was happening, he was delighted. He took Timmy's little basket of bread and fish and blessed it. Miraculously, there was enough food to feed everyone, and they all had more than enough to eat. It was like a magical picnic, with smiles and laughter all around.

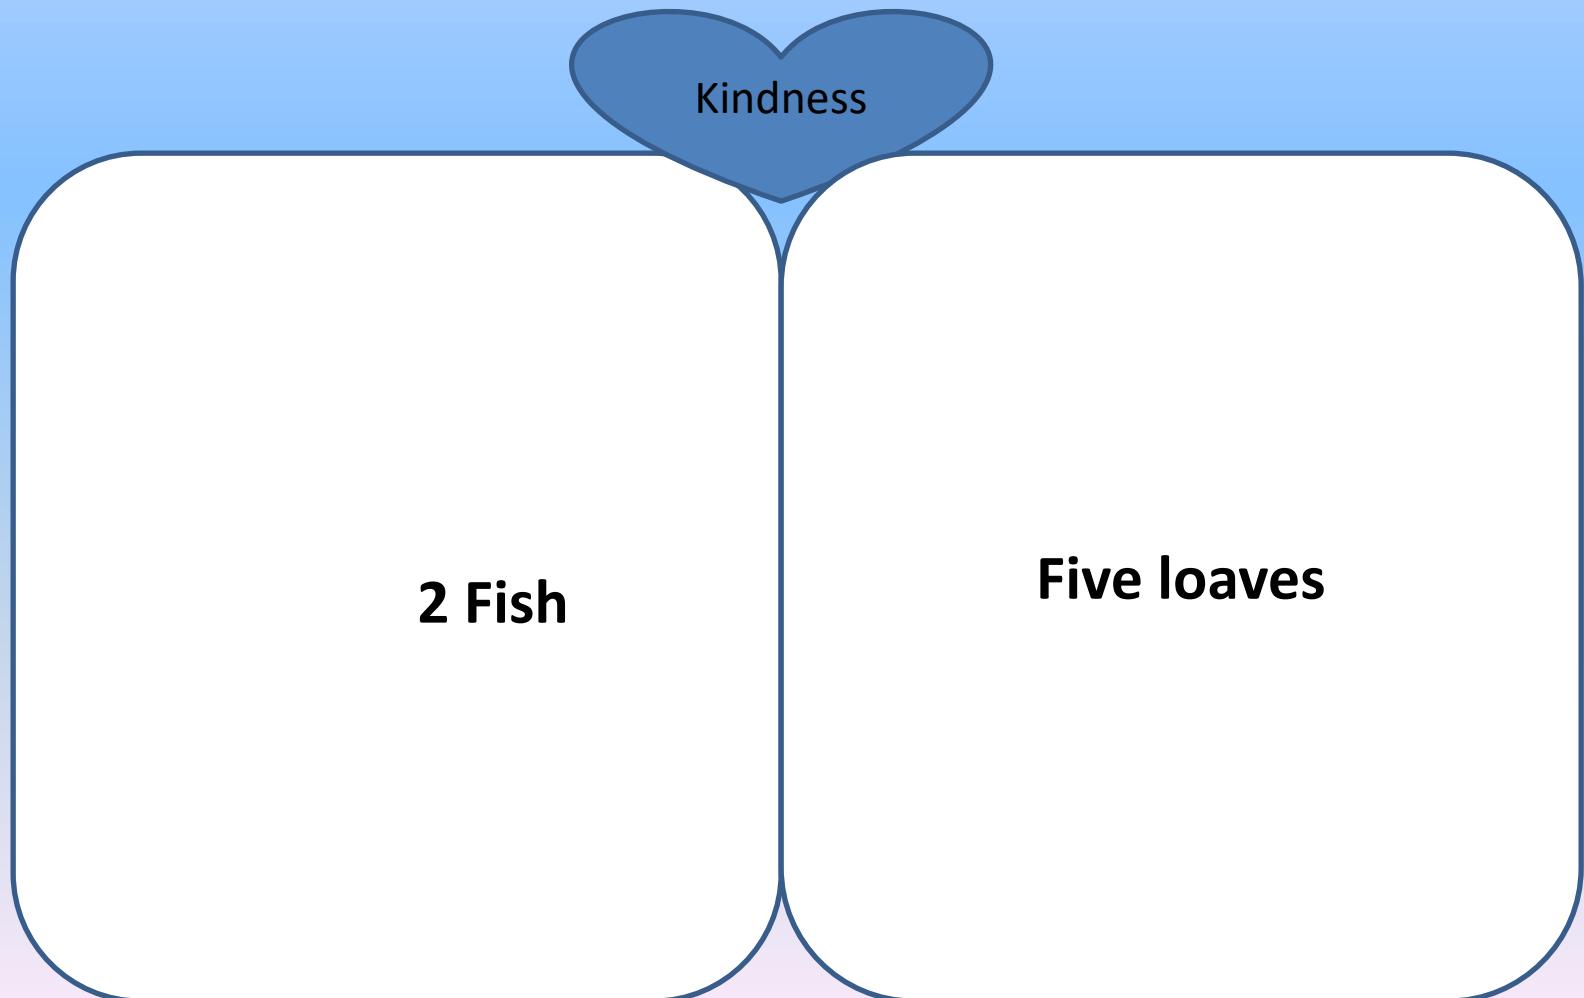

From that day on, Timmy continued to share with others, whether it was food, toys, or just a friendly smile. He knew that even a small act of kindness could make the world a better place.

So, kids, remember Timmy's story and be like him. Share your toys, your snacks, and your love with others. You'll be surprised how much joy you can spread with just a little bit of kindness in your heart.

Chapter 3

THE GOOD SAMARITAN SAM

Once upon a time, in a little village, there lived a kind and generous man named Sam. He was known by everyone as "Good Samaritan Sam" because he was always ready to help those in need

One sunny morning, Sam was on his way to the market. As he walked along the dusty road, he noticed a man lying on the side of the path. The man was badly hurt, with cuts and bruises all over his body. He rushed quickly to the injured man's side and He could tell the man needed help right away.

Good Samaritan Sam carefully lifted the injured man and took him to the nearest Hospital. When they arrived at the Hospital, The Doctor provided a comfortable bed and clean clothes for the injured man

Sam left enough money with the innkeeper to cover all the expenses and promised to return in a few days to check on the man's progress. The injured man thanked Sam for his kindness and care. He was a traveler who had been attacked by robbers and left for dead

The story of Good Samaritan Sam spread throughout the village, teaching everyone the importance of helping those in need, no matter who they were or where they came from. The kindness and compassion of one person, like Sam, could make the world a better place for all. And so, the village learned to be like Good Samaritan Sam, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need.

"Chapter 4 LOST BUT FOUND

Once upon a time, there was a man who had two sons. The younger son was very curious and wanted to go on an adventure. He went to his dad and said, "Dad, I want my share of the money so I can go explore the world."

His dad loved him a lot, so he gave him some money, and the young son set off on his adventure. He went to a faraway city and spent his money on fun things like parties and games. He made lots of new friends, but they were not very nice to him.

After a while, he ran out of money, and his new friends left him. The city faced a big problem, and there wasn't enough food for everyone. The young son had no money and couldn't even find enough food to eat. He felt very sad and lonely. He decided to go back to his dad and say sorry.

He walked all the way back home, and his dad saw him from far away. His dad was so happy to see him and ran to give him a big hug. The son said, "Dad, I'm so sorry for leaving. Can I come back home and be your son again?"

His dad was full of love and forgave him. They had a big party with delicious food to celebrate the son's return

The story teaches us about love, forgiveness, and how it's never too late to say sorry and come back home. It's a story that shows us that our families will always love us no matter what.
